

Course Code: GERM E1015
Course Title: Introduction to German Grammatical Structures and Vocabulary
Prerequisites: None

Learning outcome:

The candidate is expected to be proficient in the basics of German grammar.

The student should show a basic competence in writing, reading and speaking skills in Modern Standard German.

Insight into conditions and day- to- day situations in German speaking countries (Landeskunde) is expected as it can be seen in the relevant text books.

The grammar and the textbooks, with which the candidate is expected to be conversant with, can be seen in the "Dossier for candidates offering German as a subject for the external degree."

Assessment: A three hours written examination: 80% . The grammar and vocabulary will be tested in the language context e.g. filling in the blanks of a given text.

Oral Examination: 20%

at the oral exam the candidate is expected to be able to express in simple German about himself/ herself, her/his family and studies.

Recommended text book:

"Sprachkurs Deutsch" Book I and Book II Ch.1-6 (including relevant audio-tapes)

Additional material:

Video-tapes: "Alles Gute", Audio tapes accompanying the text books"Theme I"