

Course Code: GERM E3025

Course Title: History and Interpretation of German Literature focusing the 19th and the 20th Century including Contemporary Authors. (3hours)

Prerequisites: Pass in the Level II examination

Learning outcome:

The candidate is expected to gain basic understanding of the recommended text representing the periods beginning with Naturalism, the 20th century and contemporary German literature. The candidate must be able to identify different literary genres and understand literature in view of political, social and cultural changes. He/she should be able to choose an adequate interpretation method in correspondence to the text.

Assessment:

A three hour written examination: 100%.

This paper has to be answered in German. Dictionaries can be used.

Recommended text book:

The prescribed literary texts and supplementary material will be listed in the "Dossier for candidates offering German as a subject for the external degree."