

Course Code : INTS E3025
Title : Globalization and International Migration
Type : Core
Learning Outcome : At the end of this course unit, the students will be able to explain status and trends of Globalization and International Migration

Part I

Course Contents : Introduction to globalization, Origin & evolution of globalization, Relationship between globalization & trade liberalization, Multinational Trade & multinational corporations, Technology revolution & communication revolutions. E-Economics, E-Commerce, E-Trade, E-Banking system, Flexible production methods, Political, Social & cultural impacts of globalization. Globalization within the imperfect competition & growth of new capitalism, Globalization & development, Externalities of globalization.

Part II

Historical background of international migration flow, Factors influencing international migration; Pull factors & push factors, International migration laws, International migration theories, International labour migration & its socio-economic impact, foreign employment of Sri Lanka & its role

Methods of Teaching and Learning : Seminars, Study guides, Tutorials, Assignments.

Scheme of Assessment : Assignment 20%, Written Examination 80%

Recommended Readings : P.J. Lloyd, International Trade Opening & Formation of the global economy, University of Melbourne, Australia.
James Foreman-peck, Historical Foundation of Globalization, London, UK, 1998.
Mervyn K. Lewis, The globalization of financial services, University of South Australia.

Marina Papanastassiou & Robert Pearce, Multinational Technology & National Competitiveness, Athens University, University of Reading, UK.

Claus F. Zimmermann & Thomas K. Bauer, The Economics of Migration, Bonn University, DIW Berlin, Center for Economic Policy Research, London, UK.

David Greenway & Douglas R. Nelson, Globalization & Labour Market, University of Nottingham, UK, Tulane University, US.

Sjaastad, Larry A, The Cost & Returns of Human Migration, Journal of Political Economy, 1962.

Sassen Saskia, The Mobility of labour & Capital, A study in International Investments & Labour Flow, Cambridge University Press, 1988

Foreign Employment, Ministry of Plan Implementation, Colombo, 1984.