

University of Kelaniya – Sri Lanka
Centre for Distance and Continuing Education

Bachelor of Science (General) Degree First Examination (External) – 2010/2011 (New Syllabus)
December 2013

Faculty of Social Sciences

Philosophy - PHIL. E1015

Problems of Philosophy

Answer five (05) questions only

No. of questions : 10

Time : 03 Hours

-
01. Evaluate the contribution of philosophy in human life.
 02. “Philosophical questions are scientific questions which science is not yet ready to deal.”
Comment on this statement.
 03. Evaluate major characteristics of Empiricism with comparison to Rationalism.
 04. State and Evaluate the Theories of Truth.
 05. Examine the difference between knowledge and belief with examples.
 06. Is there any necessary connection between cause and effect? Clarify.
 07. Do we really perceive the physical world? Discuss.
 08. Do you believe in God? Justify your answer with suitable examples.
 09. Illustrate the concept of Free-will with comparison to Deterministic theories.
 10. “Many philosophical problems would be disappeared with linguistic analysis” Illustrate with suitable examples.
